The Ohana Group

Hello,

Welcome to The Ohana Group and thanks for taking the time to get to know us. My name is Ryan Fitzpatrick, I'm the Executive Chef at The Ohana Group, and I'd like to share with you a little bit about our Company and how we can create an unforgettable wedding or event for you that brings your vision and expectations to life.

For the last 15 years, I've worked in Australia and around the world and had the privilege to create food and design menus at some of the world's most exclusive places and destinations. While I was originally based in Noosa, most recently, I was in the Pacific for five years, working as a private chef on the Super Yachts.

The Pacific is a very special place, a bit like Noosa - unique in the world - a place where people value the connection between food, friendship, and celebration. My love of Pacific culture and the concept of Ohana, which means a warm and friendly family environment, inspired my business partners and I to bring a little bit of Pacific love and hospitality to the Sunshine Coast, so I returned home, and we founded The Ohana Group, based here in beautiful Noosa.

At The Ohana Group, our passion is weddings, events, food and hospitality. We love creating unique, exclusive experiences and providing generous hospitality services for our clients. While I look after the food and hospitality side of The Ohana Group, I work alongside a team of event specialists who really excel in their field. Our Events Team has many years of experience coordinating and delivering upscale weddings and events in renowned resorts, as well as designing and managing private events and corporate functions.

The Ohana Group is agile, responsive and creative with well-established local networks of suppliers, service providers and food producers. Whether you need all elements of a corporate event taken care of or you just need catering for a specific function or a private dinner celebration, we can do it for you. And if you are a couple looking for those extra special flourishes for your wedding, we are at your service to provide end to end wedding coordination or just to add the fine details and finishing touches.

Once you contact us, we will further discuss your vision, ideas, and share our knowledge, experience and creativity with you so that we can develop and coordinate a plan to bring your dream wedding or special event to life. We look forward to meeting you very soon.

Warm regards

Ryan Fitzpatrick,

Executive Chef & Director

For the Love of Food

The Ohana Group is staffed by a professional, efficient, enthusiastic team who have the know-how, artistic flair and capacity to deliver food and hospitality services within your budget. With a purpose-built kitchen in Noosa, exclusively owned and operated by us, we can cater for all your needs.

The philosophy of Ohana extends to our food and produce suppliers where we have gathered together a network of local and national artisan producers and growers. All components of our menus are made in house, from scratch and we only source sustainable, seasonal produce.

Fresh and Seasonal Produce

We know the food ingredients that we work with and we understand how they are produced, harvested and transported. Our suppliers and producers are our good friends, we talk with them daily and we visit them regularly to see what's happening on their farms. This ensures our ingredients are fresh and authentic and that there is a sense of connection between the food that we serve and your table.
